JNR Snapshot

- Headquarters in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan
- Uranium Explorer in Saskatchewan with major focus on Athabasca Basin
- Public company - shares listed on Canada’s TSX Venture Stock Exchange
- Current number of shares 88,645,505
- Approximately 3,400 shareholders
JNR Management

• Richard Kusmirski, President & CEO
• Dave Billard, Vice President Exploration
• Dr. Irvine R. Annesley, Director Exploration
• Ken Wasyliuk, Chief Geochemist
• Dr. Les Beck, Chairman Technical Advisory Board
Saskatchewan Advantages

• Athabasca Basin of Saskatchewan is the richest uranium region in the world
• 3 mines produce 30% of the world’s uranium
• Low cost of production for value of ore
• New exploration ideas and technologies are resulting in new discoveries
• Politically stable with strong Government and local support for industry
JNR Property Map in Northern Saskatchewan

- 95 claims
- 357,493 ha
- 14 projects
- 6 projects 100% owned
- 8 joint ventures
- Shallow Targets
JNR Technical Excellence

- Maintain scientific knowledge
- Utilize modern technology and ideas
- Advance and develop scientific methods
- Respect and utilize the lessons and knowledge of the past
JNR Properties Available for Investment in Saskatchewan

- 39 claims totaling 147,835 hectares
- 6 projects
- Mostly Shallow Targets
Newnham Lake

- 100% JNR
- 8 Claims
- 27,723 ha

- JNR has spent $1.5 million to date
- Several high priority targets ready to drill
- Modern geological ideas need to be tested
Black Lake

- 100% JNR
- 10 Claims
- 41,784 ha

- JNR has spent $3.5 million on this property
- Very few drill holes have been completed
- Numerous drilling targets are ready
Way Lake North

- 100% JNR
- 9 Claims
- 35,913 ha

- JNR has spent $4.6 million on this property
- Very few drill holes have been completed
Snowbird

- 100% JNR
- 4 Claims
- 19,090 ha

Very little exploration has taken place on the property before JNR acquired it.
Yurchison Lake

- 100% JNR
- 4 Claims
- 12,660 ha

- JNR has spent $1.9 million on this property
- Very few drill holes have been completed